Clark or his deputies to subordinates and organizational units of the United States Air Force Academy concerning verbal, written, or electronic engagement or responses to requests for meetings, information, or conflict resolution from representatives of the Military Religious Freedom Foundation.”

10. The requests were submitted electronically and a “Request Acknowledgement” was received from the Air Force FOIA Requester Service Center for each one on the dates they were submitted.

11. On November 15, 2022, MRFF received a “Status Update” e-mail from Charles M. Springs, USAF’s Chief FOIA Public Liaison Officer, for case number 2023-00085-F, stating the request had been put in the “complex track.”

12. On January 9, 2023, having received no further communication from Mr. Springs on case number 2023-00085-F, and no communication at all regarding cases 2023-00292-F or 2023-00347-F, MRFF e-mailed Mr. Springs requesting updates. MRFF asked Mr. Springs to confirm receipt of this e-mail but received no reply.

13. There was no further communication from Mr. Springs until nine months later, on September 18, 2023, when he sent a “Status Update” on case number 2023-00085-F, stating: “Your request has been assigned to the organization(s) responsible for the records responsive to your request. Once received, our office will begin processing your request for release.”

14. On October 17, 2023, Mr. Springs sent MRFF “Status Updates” on all three cases.

15. The October 17, 2023 “Status Updates” for case numbers 2023-00085-F and 2023-00292-F both stated: “we are continuing to process and review information pertaining to your request.”

16. The “Status Update” for case number 2023-00347-F stated: “Currently, your case is in final review. We estimate responding within the next 10 calendar days at which time will prepare for release.”

17. On November 13, 2023, MRFF sent an e-mail to Mr. Springs reminding him that all three requests were over a year overdue.

18. On November 16, 2023, Mr. Springs again sent MRFF “Status Updates” on all three cases.

19. The November 16, 2023 “Status Updates” for case numbers 2023-00085-F and 2023-00292-F both stated: “We are continuing to process your request.”

20. The November 16, 2023 “Status Update” for case number 2023-00347-F stated: “Your case is being finalized. We estimate releasing documents by 30 Nov 23.” No documents were released.

23. The December 18, 2023 “Status Update” for case number 2023-00347-F stated: “Your case is being finalized. We estimate releasing documents by 22 Dec 23.” No documents were released.

24. On January 30, 2024, Mr. Springs again sent MRFF “Status Updates” on all three cases.

25. The January 30, 2024 “Status Update” for case numbers 2023-00085-F and 2023-00292-F stated: “We estimate responding to your requests by 23 February 2024.”

26. The January 30, 2024 “Status Update” for case number 2023-00347-F stated: “Your case is being finalized. We estimate releasing documents by 9 February 24.” No documents were released.

27. MRFF received similar “Status Updates” on all three cases on March 18, 2024, and April 23, 2024. These “Status Updates” were signed “FOIA Requester Service Center” rather than being signed by Mr. Springs, although the e-mail address they came from was the same.

28. The March 18, 2024 “Status Update” for case number 2023-00347-F moved the “estimated completion date” from February 9, 2024, to April 1, 2024.

30. The “Status Updates” for case numbers 2023-00085-F and 2023-00292-F gave no estimated completion date.

31. No further communications were received from either Mr. Springs or the “FOIA Requester Service Center” after the April 23, 2023, “Status Updates,” and no responses to any of the three FOIA requests were ever received.

32. Between January 2023 and January 2024, MRFF sent over a dozen e-mails to Mr. Springs. All said as follows: "Please acknowledge receipt of this email." Mr. Springs did not respond to any of these e-mails.

33. All three FOIA requests, submitted to USAFA in October 2022, are now over two and a half years overdue, with no "Status Updates" or any other communications being received from either Mr. Springs or the "FOIA Requester Service Center" after April 23, 2024.

34. To date, USAFA has failed to produce any documents in response to any of the three requests.

37. Defendants USAFA and DAF failed to produce any documents or otherwise respond to MRFF's Requests within twenty (20) days, as required by FOIA.
